OPIUM IN KAU.

Captain Freeman Fined for Dealing in the Drug.

In the early moonlit morning of May 26 Policeman Kele Pinao at Punalou, Kau, Hawaii, arrested a Chinaman named Aki with nineteen tins of opium in his possession. Aki gave Pinao $20 and Geo. Kauna, another policeman, $10, as bribes to let him go. They took the money and paid it into Court at the trial.

The Chinaman pleaded guilty after first denying that the opium was his. He gave evidence that he had bought the opium, supposed to be twenty tins, from Capt. Freeman of the steamer W. G. Hall, paying $194 on account of the $300 demanded. The officers testified they had watched Capt. Freeman's movements from concealment, and when he went away from some lumber piles they went to the spot, where they found a paper box containing tins of opium buried in the sand. Afterward seeing the box in Aki's hands, Pinao seized it and the holder.

Aki was fined $250 and $1 costs. On the report of the case being made to the Marshal, he sent orders to have Capt. Freeman and Purser Simpson arrested. The officers had given evidence of seeing the purser talking with Aki just before the latter was arrested. Deputy Sheriff Searle has reported that Capt. Freeman was arrested, found guilty, and fined $200 and costs. He appealed and gave bonds to appear at the September term of the Circuit Court at Kau.

ROBINSON BLOCK.

Handsome House at Honolulu, K. I. and Labor.

There is not a handsome front elevation in all the business architecture of Honolulu than that of the Robinson block just built on Hotel street. Mr. George Lunn, proprietor of the Honolulu Planning Mill, is the contractor. The architect is Mr. I. A. Palmer, office in Spreckels' block with Mr. Rowell. All the labor and all the material that went into the building were, so far as was possible, found in Honolulu. Besides being shapely and harmonious in design, the building is very substantial.

The structure contains four self-contained stores, each with cellar, ground floor and second flat. The stores are each 21 feet by 45 feet inside measurement—the first story 14 ft. 6 in. high, the second 13 ft. 6 in. high, and the cellar 7 ft. deep. Each upstairs flat is well lighted with three windows in front and two in rear. Easy stairs lead up to it, winding at bottom. The cellar is exceedingly well ventilated with vertical cast iron gratings in front and lateral gratings in rear. Much of the cellar wall is the solid cement. Each store has a yard at the rear.

Iron pillars are at the corners and dividing the store fronts, and iron columns with rivet frame the doorways. The whole front of the lower story is of iron and plate glass. All of the iron work was done at the Union Iron Works, being the first work of the kind ever done in Honolulu. As said before in this paper, the pillars, columns, capitals and girders are all flawless, and the work is really superior to anything of the kind imported here. Handsome pillars of artificial stone divide the upper story front, and these were cast in moulds made at the Honolulu Planning Mill. The middle front is surmounted by a pediment of tasteful design, bearing the name of the block in cursive form.

In fact, nothing has been imported for this building which could be made here. Mr. Lunn has always supported home industry both in theory and practice. The architect, Mr. Palmer, has reason to be proud of this monument of his talent. His details never came wrong in the fraction of an inch, and there is not a more attractive-looking block in Honolulu than the "Robinson."

LAND SALES.

Under an order of the Supreme Court Mr. Jacob K. Brown at noon today, in front of the Government building, sold three lots of land belonging to the Buckle estate. A lot on Union street, makai of the Catholic Church premises, containing 2724 square feet, was knocked down to Mr. J. W. McDonald for $1175.

Two lots at Pawa on the Waikiki road, between the residence of Col. Boyd and land of Mr. C. A. Brown, containing about seven-tenths of an acre each, were sold to Mr. C. A. Brown for $950 each.

The Government sale of lots at Honolulu (the "Plains"), Honolulu, resulted as follows. It will be seen that the upset prices of from $200 to $250 a lot have been handsomely exceeded:

Lots 3, 4 and 5 to J. C. Quinn, for $230; 7, to Mary Kalilihua, for $280; 8, to A. Teneteta, for $490; 9, to Mary Chin On, for $410; 10, to Kaipuaa, for $370; 11, to J. H. Boyd, trustee, for $380; 12, to Sam, for $460. Total proceeds, $3850.
